President's Message

Hello Everyone,

Happy May Day... Well spring is upon us, although we are still having some wet days ahead. However, for those still interested in skiing some ski resorts are still open until July 4. Hope you all had a wonderful ski season, and now it is time to plan for more outdoor fun!!!!

Claudia Fernandes
President

We do have some fun days ahead.... We are having our "End of Season BBQ" June 24th. This year the event will be at Dan and Pats' home, thank you both. The event will be catered and I hope you can join us for fun, food, and friends. Please sign up with Pat Green.

Also, we will be planning more BBQ meetings this summer and more meetings at Lake Chabot again this year. Pat is busy planning some fun outings in the days ahead and some impromptu gatherings. Continue to stay tuned.

Thank you to Erik, Director of Operations for the Alameda County Food Bank, for joining us at our last meeting. He provided great insight into what the agency provides and how they partner with different organizations, such as Meals on Wheels, all year long. He also shared with us some information on how long we should keep food and the dates we see on cans, cartons, and boxes. You will see that information provided in this month's newsletter and online. I think you will find it interesting! In addition, Erik announced there is an upcoming event called "Empty Bowls" that members may wish to attend on May 18th at the Food Bank. You can go online at the Food Bank website to get more information and sign up if interested.

We are busy getting ready for the upcoming FWSA Convention in Boise, Idaho, June 7-10. There are still spots available for delegates from our club, if anyone is interested in attending as a representative, please let me know. Next year BAC and all the clubs in BAC will be hosting the convention, we will be helping, so hope you all are able to attend next year.

I look forward to working with all of you this coming year, and hope to see you all at our upcoming meetings and events. Happy Spring!!!

Claudia

May has arrived and the weather is gorgeous in the Bay Area. Even with all the snow pack in the Sierras this warm weather will bring an end to the ski season soon. Anne Wilburn
Vice President
