President's Message

Hi everyone!

Summer is coming to an end but the weather has been beautiful. Hope you all have been enjoying it and finding new adventures.

Claudia Fernandes
President

We had our BBQ general meeting at Lake Chabot and again the weather was wonderful and a nice turnout including a little baby squirrel that attached itself to Rich's ankle and shoe for protection till the ranger came to take it to a new home.

The evening concert in the park with "Tommy and the Four Speeds" was great music and friends. Another good time had by all, a small but mighty group. Thank you again to Dan and Pat for putting out the blankets at the midnight hour and Pat for setting this up. It is always a wonderful time.

Well the trip to Israel and Jordan is in days and what an adventure and history to be told on this trip. Many thanks to Kathy and Tucker for this opportunity - safe journeys to us all.

See you at our last BBQ meeting of the year hope you all can make the 25th. We moved the date to accommodate the return of our traveling members. We should have some good stories to share of our summer adventures.

Whatever you do for the rest of these summer days be safe and most of all enjoy yourselves!!!!

Claudia
