President's Message

Happy September everyone. Hope this message finds you well and experiencing what life has to offer during these crazy times!

Claudia Fernandes
President

We just got back from our trip on the PO river in Italy. It was an adventure. Not a restful trip but action packed as we bicycled five days in a row anywhere from 30-50 km a day. We had a good time with friends and experienced the e-assist bikes. We had all types of terrain, from the easy to the not so easy. Traffic, gravel, fields, dikes, detours, ruts, potholes, highways, and some bike trails. The cheese tasting was fun and the village where they make and develop amusement rides was very interesting and unique. Amazing!

So we all ended the bike and barge in one piece with some cuts and bruises, and sore areas but in pretty good shape. Some people stayed longer to see more Italy and others came early, overall a nice trip. Thank you, Kathy and Tucker.

We will be having another meeting at Lake Chabot this month and will keep you posted about BBQing as it changes daily at the parks. Don Jose's now has staff to cover our meetings later this year so we will return when we can, probably October.

As Pat schedules more get togethers you will receive notices.

The FWSA convention is next month so make your reservations if you plan to attend. All forms are on their website.

I hope all is well and you are staying safe and finding new adventures and projects to keep you busy during these challenging days.

Take care and enjoy your September!

Best always, Claudia
