President's Message

Hi Gang,

The date is October 30th and our Skizette Editor Dennie is giving me the "You are Late Hurry up dude" emails and she's rightfully concerned about getting this edition out on time. She always has. I am still winding down from our fabulous Caribbean cruise and ratcheting up with work, paying bills, unpacking, etc. Not to worry though. I still have time to once again remind you of our annual Auction on November 4th.

Whether you are near or far I am hoping that all of our members will make an effort to make some kind of a donation to support the Club and even more important, to support DSUSA (Disabled Sports USA) our number one effort for years to help those who have experienced a trauma that has taken away their ability to function without all of their limbs, eyes or hearing. Our adaptive ski school at Alpine Meadows has trained so many to do something they thought they would never do again and they graduate with a new and positive attitude and the belief that "If I can do this I can do anything". So please help with whatever you can to give a new outlook to young and old, and especially to our veterans we now thankfully salute as our "Wounded Warriors," and there are many. Each member of Castro Valley Ski Club, 193 of you, recently received a letter with a request for your help. Since many of you are not geographically close enough to attend our meetings or the Auction, please take this opportunity to do your part by enclosing your check and mailing it to the club at P.O. Box 20321, Castro Valley, CA 94546. You'll feel good about it and your slogan might be, "If I can do this, they can do anything".

Cheers, Ralph

Consider this.....

Bay Area Snow Sports Council News

The BAC Discount Lift Ticket Sales campaign is winding down but there is still time before the November 4th deadline to place ticket orders. Information on the program along with the order form was emailed to club members last month and I have already received many of your orders.

Discounted tickets save us about 15-20 percent compared to at-the-window prices so participating in the BAC Discount Lift Ticket program is an excellent value. Skiing is an expensive passion so any means to save money is well worth it. For the upcoming ski season, you can expect prices to be on par with last year. I will have forms available at the November 4th meeting in case you did not get the information electronically. Also a reminder to those who returned tickets last year, you must turn in a sales order for the repurchase of new tickets.

The Far West Ski Association is conducting a survey that is potentially worth $500 to you. Survey information along with website link was emailed to CVSC members last month. Sidebar, we must thank Dennie Warren for the timely delivery of the survey and all other information distributed to the CVSC membership electronically. Members completing the survey will be in a drawing with a prize value of $500. A $500 prize is well worth 5-10 minutes of your time I would say. Check it out.

As always, I look forward to seeing you at Don Jose's at our monthly meetings. Meanwhile, I hope you and yours are having fun.

Best regards,
Paula Kinahon
