WHAT'S IN A NAME?

In 2009 Castro Valley Ski Club will celebrate its 25th anniversary as a ski club. I recall the day in 1993 when a friend told me about FWSA and this group and the trips offered to great ski resorts all over the world. I had recently moved here from Colorado where skiing was one of my great loves.

Wow! A traveling ski club. So I called someone about membership and asked for additional information. I learned that CVSC was big time into racing and that the club was aiming toward the FWSA championship. Whoops. I'm not a racer. I just like to ski, recreationally. So, the idea of joining the club was put on hold and we opted for membership in FWSA so we could go on the great trips offered through that organization. Needless to say, we were intimidated with the thought of racing. "Hey, that sounds dangerous. Remember that guy in the Olympics who broke his neck careening down the mountain at a raging speed?" So, we began enjoying ski trips to awesome resorts in the Italian, French and Swiss Alps, where we enjoyed new friendships with fellow travelers some of whom were members of CVSC. We were hooked and began attending monthly meetings. In a sense, we became members of a wonderful family of skiers who also enjoyed the social events the club offered.

Where should we go from here? Is it time for a name change? I have a concern that as we (me) get older, this generation will opt out of skiing and revert to enjoying only the social options...and that's OK. However, should we be looking for ideas that would begin to attract that younger generation who may be intimidated by a "ski only" club, as the name infers?

At the recent FWSA Convention in Bellevue, Washington I learned that other clubs have adopted names such as "Ski and Social Club", "Ski and Adventure Club" and "Ski and Travel Club". They are saying it like it is and are attracting new members. One club bragged a membership of almost one thousand. That is not where we want to go. We should set our sites on those who would hopefully be quality, active contributors to the continuing strength and success of the club as it has been for almost 25 years.

Let's look to the future and think about efforts to bring in youthful, members who will take up where we "young-at-heart" folks will eventually leave off. I would appreciate your input and feedback on this subject, both pro and con.

Now get out there and make this and every day one you will be proud of!!!!

Ralph

Greetings fellow CVSC members! I'm having a terrible time accepting the fact that 4th of July is upon us. 2008 is flying by at lighting speed. I need time to stop & smell the flowers, to spend leisurely evenings lingering with friends over a glass of wine, or simply just to be. Oh well, get over it Paula, as they say.

Bay Area Snow Sports Council News

The BAC faired well at the 2008 Far West Ski Association convention last month. The FWSA awarded the council with 2nd place in the website competition. The council website truly value-added with loaded of information relating to the sport we love to love. Whether ski industry news, council updates, or clubs activities, the BAC website has it all. And lest I forget, the BAC website links to just about any ski oriented website you can image. Do check it out: skibac.org. Not to be outdone, the monthly BAC newsletter published by Sig Kalteis walked away with first place honors in the council newsletter competition. The BAC newsletter emailed (or snail mailed) to club BAC Reps and to club newsletter editors is also available online. Last and certainly never least, council President Dennis Heffley won the 2008 FWSA Man of the Year competition. Wow, what an accomplishment and honor. One I may add is very well deserved. Dennis has done an outstanding job as BAC President during the past three years. The BAC board of directors is stronger than ever in my view much to the credit of Dennis Heffley. Congratulations and many thanks to Dennis, Sig and to the entire BAC board of directors for their fine contributions to our skiing pleasure.

FWSA ski week 2009 Big Sky Montana

CVSC has 16 members signed up for Big Sky. Perhaps small but no doubt a mighty contingent that will do CVSC proud. The second $200 installment is due July 1, 2008. Please mail your check directly to Linda Hennings. The trip is still open for sign-ups so don't tarry if you're interested. Prime lodging, particularly ski-in-ski-out, and airline options go fast. Mail your check directly to Linda Hennings, BAC Travel Director (see attached flyer for details) or give check to Paula Kinahon, CVSC BAC Rep.

As we turn the page to July, I look forward to our summer adventures in the culinary delights. For starters, we have our annual summer BBQ meeting July 9th at the home of Dan & Pat Green in Pleasanton. Hum...what tasty treats shall I bring to share?

I look forward to seeing you at the BBQ meeting & beyond. Meanwhile, I hope you're having fun.

Best regards,

Paula
